

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Floyd Fansler and Ada Ryan were united in Holy Matrimony in Abilene, Kansas, on February 12, 1938, by Father Roach; and,

WHEREAS, Floyd and Ada moved to Hot Springs in 1951, bringing their three progeny to grow a South Dakota branch of the Fansler family tree; and,

WHEREAS, Floyd has contributed greatly to building a better nation through his service in the United States Navy in World War II, and has made South Dakota a better place by constructing schools in which children learn and churches in which families worship; and,

WHEREAS, Ada, in addition to keeping the home fires burning, served her community in the great spirit of volunteerism in many capacities--as a 4-H Leader, room mother, PTA member and member of the Altar Society; and,

WHEREAS, Floyd and Ada are renowned for opening their hearth and hearts to countless adoptees, among them David Elkjer, Tim Beery, Fred and Julie Waxler, Anne Colgan, Chris Burg, Hortense, Carruthers, Petrina, Snowflake, Jake, Critter, Larry Nicky, I-Go, Falstaff and Mikey; and,

WHEREAS, It is altogether fitting that the Governor make note of momentous occasions in the lives of exemplary South Dakotans and special family friends:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, on the occasion of their Forty-fifth Wedding Anniversary (because I won't be Governor when they celebrate their Fiftieth) do hereby proclaim Saturday, February 12, 1983, as in South Dakota, and I join their three children, Jane, Jim and Mary; their seven grandchildren, Cathy, Jeff, Stacie, Jackle, Crystal, Kelly, and Brianna; their two great-grandsons, D. J. and Nick; all fine South Dakotans, and their other friends and relatives in wishing them many more years of health and happiness together and in thanking them for the legacy of loving, giving and sharing they have given to all South Dakotans.

ATTEST:

Alvin Sundeen
ALVIN SUNDEN, SECRETARY OF STATE

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Eighth Day of February, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Three
